

ARCHITECTS ASSOCIATION OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

Continuing Education Activities Allocation Chart

STRUCTURED LEARNING All learning activities recorded in the “Structured Learning” category require evidence of participation.	Organized educational sessions that deal with a specific matter related to architecture or business of architecture.	A Minimum of 15 hours per two year Cycle
Workshops Lectures Seminars College or university courses Conferences breakdown sessions Lunch and learns Distance education modules (i.e. on-line courses and webinars)
Presentations and Teaching	Preparation and formal delivery of information, instruction and/or training which represents a learning opportunity for the audience and is related to business or architecture.	Max 15
UNSTRUCTURED LEARNING	55 hours in 2 year ConEd Cycle and in accordance with the maximum numbers noted below.	A Minimum of 55 hours per two year Cycle
Committee Meetings	Attendance at meetings as a member of an organized group the mandate/activities of which relate to the conduct of business or the practice of architecture. May include: Task Forces/Groups, Professional Organization, Community Committee, Sub-committees. Does not include Service Clubs	Max 25
Discussion Group	An organized group of individuals who have gathered to discuss a specific topic, matter or issue which is intended to support or advance the practice of architecture by the participants. May include: Focus Group, Guest Speakers, Facilitated Discussion.	Max 25
Council		Max 30

Mentoring	Syllabus Program Mentoring, IAP program mentoring, ITP mentoring	Max 10
Professional Tour	An organized and guided tour which will support or advance the practice of architecture by participants.	Max 15
Professional Writing	A body of writing that has been prepared by the individual which is connected to the practice of architecture and which is shared with others through publication for the purpose of educating or informing others.	Max 25
Reading	Reading of books, periodicals and/or journals related to architecture or business of architecture.	Max 15
Scholarly Research	Research that is conducted by the individual for the purpose of advancing information and knowledge generally of a specific matter related to business or architecture and which will be used to educate or inform others, for example, through publication.	Max 45

Note to Above Table

1. All learning activities must be a minimum of one hour in length.